Belberry®

BELBERRY PRESERVES

Our traditional jams are boiled in an open kettle. The exquisite taste is obtained by using high quality fruit and the finest sugars. When necessary, natural apple pectin is added. The conservation process takes place in a natural way, by auto pasteurization. Spread on toast, serve with ice-cream or pair with savory foods like specialty cheese.

BELBERRY SOTONGO

These handcrafted fruit & chocolate spreads are the perfect mix of freshly selected fruit and Callebaut Satongo blend chocolate. The fruits consist of Alphonso mango from Cameroon, purple figs from turkey, Morello cherries and Willamette raspberries from Belgium and Spanish Clementine. The origins of the 'Satongo' blend are cocoa beans from Sao Thomé, Tanzania and Ghana. These fruit and chocolate pastes can be used on toast, for patisserie or to fill up our 'Macarons de Paris'.

BELBERRY PAIRINGS

Cheese and fruit go naturally well together. Both have their own well-defined characters but, when combined, they produce subtle flavors that are almost gastronomic. These confits are much less sweet than traditional jams and they will bring, used as a relish in association to the cheese, a little extra touch of the unexpected.

SIMÓN COLL

XOCOLATERS

SIMON COLL

Started in 1840 as a chocolate workshop in Sant Sadurní d'Anoia, Spain. Simon Coll is one of the few family-run chocolate companies left in Spain today. Simon Coll is a bean to bar manufacturer, and has been importing from the same plantations in Ghana and Central America for generations. After 170 years, many of Simon Colls production methods are unique in the industry.

AMATLLER

In certain places, the expression “the secret of Amatller” still exists to refer to something unknown, a reminder of an age when Amatller chocolate had a quality that was difficult to equal and many people believed it had a secret formula. What is the formula behind Chocolate Amatller today? The formula is the combination of three factors: the careful selection of ingredients, innovation in the manufacturing process and the beauty of the company’s visual history which create products that allow us to enjoy chocolate with all of our senses...

MAESTRI PASTAI SELECTION GIOVANNI CASTELLO

Traditional methods combined with using only the finest raw materials, has resulted in a pasta of exceptional taste! Bronze drawing plates are used to create a variety of cuts which ensures their texture still has a roughness typical of homemade pasta. This results in both long and short pasta cuts that are ideal for holding an assortment of delicious sauces and seasonings.

Maestri Pastai offers a wide selection of regional pasta shapes: Fusilli Avellinesi, Orecchiette, Trofie, Fusilli Napoletani and many other popular formats that embody ancient Italian traditions.

BRIE D'AMIR

A beautiful, rich, Double Crème Brie. This cheese shows off the artistry of French cheese making at its best. Its distinctive white bloom rind offers subtle nutty undertones, while the paste is rich and buttery. Only the best cow's milk from Normandy, is used to make Brie d'Amir, which makes it creamier, silkier and mouthwateringly buttery.

LA GRUTA DEL SOL

La Gruta del Sol distinguishes itself by sourcing products of the highest quality, with unique flavor profiles, and time honored traditions.

BELL'AIAS

Cave aged for 4-8 months, and made with raw cow's milk in Veneto Italy. The rind is covered with hay, which pulls moisture out of the cheese. The result is a compact, dry paste, with hints of woodland and wild flowers.

LAGO DE GARDA

Lago Di Garda is to be used as a table cheese or grated depending on how long it has been aged. Typical of the high plains of the Tremosine area in the heart of the Alto Garda Bresciano Park, it is made using partially skimmed cow's milk, from Bruna cows.

TRAMONTO ROSSO

Made from Cow milk, this cheese is aged in wine grapes and musk. The flavor is sharp with sweet after notes, the aroma is fruity and the paste is crumbly but moist.

ORO BLU AL RAMANDOLO

A small bright blue cheese which takes its flavor from one of the noblest wines from Friuli. This cheese matures in cellars and after that it's dipped into vats and covered with Ramandolo's marcs, until it reaches its signature perfumed bouquet and unique taste.

PICCOLO PASTORE

This cheese is produced using raw cow milk. It is aged for 180-240 days. Thanks to its pleasant and very aromatic flavor, Piccolo Pastore is suitable both as table cheese and for cooking.

MARCONA ALMONDS

Marcona Almonds are sometimes referred to as the "Queen of Almonds" and almost all of the production is from Spain. They are sweeter, fatter and rounder than the typical California variety. In Spain, they are usually blanched and then quickly sautéed in fresh extra virgin olive oil. When toasty brown, they are tossed with sea salt and served as a delicious snack.

MANCHEGO

Manchego, a flavorful sheep's-milk cheese, is undoubtedly Spain's most famous cheese. Manchego is made from milk of the Manchega sheep, raised in the "La Mancha" region - a vast plateau, more than 600 meters above sea level throughout the interior of Spain. Its recognizable checked rind was traditionally a result of the tough grass used to create the molds for the cheese. The flavor of Manchego changes as the cheese matures. When young, Manchego has a mild, creamy, and sweet aroma. The taste is sweet, salty and lightly nutty. The texture is smooth and creamy, and a little bit granular. This becomes more pronounced as it matures and the flavor becomes sharper. It is perfect on crusty breads, for snacks or used in sandwiches, or as an appetizer in tapas.

WALO

An Affineur is someone who has mastered the art of transforming a good cheese into a great one! The von Mühlennen family has been making and aging raw milk Swiss cheeses for almost 200 years. In 2012 they were awarded three World Championship titles from the World Cheese Awards, including Super Gold medals for their Red Nose, Starnachas and for their 16 month cave aged Gruyere cheeses.

GRUYERE

The unique caves of the von Mühlennen family allow for a slower and longer ripening process than other Swiss caves. Where cave aged Gruyere is sold at 12 months by other affineurs, the von Mühlennen are able to continue the ripening process for an additional 4 months!

STARNACHAS

A semi-hard cheese made from raw milk and aged a minimum of 8 months. The production takes place at the bottom of the Säntis, a famous mountain near Appenzell. Starnachäs was awarded Super Gold at the 2012 World Cheese Awards on account of its extra mature flavor.

RED WINE FARMER

Red wine farmer is a typical Swiss semi-hard cheese. This cheese is selected from different dairies in the eastern part of Switzerland and matured to perfection. The maturation is for 10 months, during which it is washed with red wine, which fills the cheese with creamy, nutty flavors and a fruity aroma.

RED NOSE

This hard cheese is produced in the typical Swiss style of cheese making, using raw milk and cheese-cultures produced exclusively in Switzerland. It is matured for 12 months in a natural cellar, without artificial cooling or humidification and it washed regularly with red wine. The cheese was awarded best new product the World Cheese Awards 2012. It has a robust tasted, strong but still smooth and creamy with a hint of red wine at the end.

EMMENTAL GOLD LABEL

Emmental Gold Label is aged for 14 Months. It has a characteristic smooth pale yellow rind. The flexible paste is a lovely deep yellow color. The aroma is sweet with notes of fresh-cut hay. The flavor is very fruity, not without a hint of acidity and it has walnut-sized holes.

RACLETTE

Creamy and a little pungent, this Raclette is aged to perfection. It delivers creamy, slightly sweet flavors and an aroma that balances the palate beautifully.
